

RATAPLAN-JOYA

Biography

Rataplan-Joya is a group of Street Art-artists from The Hague, London and New York, all artists are well known in their home-town. Once discovered who these artists are, this art project will be stopped.

Like pop-musicians they join each 3-4 months together to make Street Art. Street Art on canvas in their own typical and original way. They use well-known characters in their work like pop icons and their vision of urban life.

Their work was presented 2010 in hidden-gallery's in New York and 2011 in Amsterdam. All works were sold within some hours. Press and public were very enthusiastic; this kind of work was never shown before!
